

Moms & Families Curriculum Guide

Content Knowledge

1. All families are different.
2. Families can consist of mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, stepchildren, ½ brothers and sisters, grandparents, and pets.
3. Brothers and sisters can live in separate households.
4. Families love each other and do things to help each other.
5. Members of families have tasks to complete for example, cooking, gardening, cleaning, fixing things, etc.
6. Jobs are shared among family members regardless of gender.
7. Parents job is to love and care for their children.
8. Mother's Day and Father's Day are special days where we take time to let our parent's know how much we love and appreciate them.
9. All families have "special" traditions based on ethnic background, country of origin, and religion.

Primary Objectives & Skills

1. Emotional Development – being loved and accepted within a family, sense of security, identifying emotions
2. Cultural Awareness – Family celebrations and traditions